For the Express. SUMMER FRIENDS.

Gaily Summer flowers are springing And bursting into birth, Sweetly Summer birds are singing, When sunshine cheere the the earth:

But when the wintry storms draw near,

And clouds o'erspread the sky,

The Summer warblers disappear, The Summer blossoms die: True emblems these, Summer friends, Whose smiles unceasing flow,

While fickle Fortune condescends, Her sunshine to bestow! But like the birds, from Summer bowers, They fly when storms arise, Or like the short-lived Summer flowers,

Their faithless friendship dies. WILLIE WOODBINE. PAIRY GLER, IND.

May 2, 1859. Dr. C. W. Roback, - Dear sir: - My wife has been affected for many years with palpitation of the heart, I have employed sev eral Physicians, who have given her but little relief. In the winter of '58 and '59 purchased two bottles of your Blood Purifier and one hox of your Blood Pills which I concluded to try as an experiment. I am happy to inform you that she is well, indeed for the two dollars and twenty five cents thus expended, better and more lasting effects have been produced than by the hundreds of dollars previously expanded for medical service, Yours very Truly JOHN BADDERS.

SPECIAL NOTICES,

[From the Lorain Co. BAGLE, Ohio.] IF Many kinds of Tonic are advertised, hat we are assured will strengthen the heir and prevent its falling out; but none that we have seen used does all that it promises, save that of rof. O. J. Wood. This we know is good from having tried it, and witnessed in several cases its truly beneficial effects. Dr. Wood was kind enough to send us a couple of boxes, and after inding that it prevented our hair from falling out, we presented a bottle to a friend who had been hald for at least thirty years; it has restored his hair entirely, and it is now as thick and glossy as when he was twenty-five. This we say natt sincerity, and we shall be glad to have sur friends try it for themselves, as we believe t is just what it professes to be.
